World Environment Day

Spreading joy with saplings

Colours of life

A good cage is an empty cage

What does he plant who plants a tree?
He plants the glory of the forest;
He plants the forest's heritage;
The harvest of discovering eyes;
The joy that unborn eyes shall see.

World Environment day is an initiative taken by the UN to restore the environment. June 5 is dedicated to nature and to make our planet greener and habitable for the future generation. The Trinity International School tries to make our students understand that the planting of trees brings joy and happiness to the unborn generation. This is also a way to show respect to our planet. We believe that this is the generation which can make peace with nature.

Trinity International School took the reins of the day in her hands and celebrated the auspicious occasion with great enthusiasm. Located at the foothills of Sahyadri, the school adorns itself with a lush green spread of land. Avid from Traya Admistress was invited to speak on the importance of Environment Restoration. The session was taken forward by Hussain Bharnal who spoke on biodiversity. The children were intrigued and engrossed in the captivating session which had become very interesting because of the wonderful presentation and various interesting games and activities. Let's join hands together to turn things around and make way for a better tomorrow for all of us and for all living beings.

NARRATE

The house started to shake, and at first, I thought it was an earthquake. We'd trained for those at school, I ran to the nearest door frame and pushed my hands and feet into it as hard as I could.

But this wasn't a normal earthquake. None of the other houses outside were shaking, for one thing. And it went on much too long. As the shaking got more and more intense, a hole opened in the middle of the house, and from it rose...
